1. In connection with its membership campaign among the Italian youth, the Partito Comunista Italiano (PCI; Italian Communist Party) has assigned to the Confederazione Generale Italiana del Lavoro (CGIL; General Italian Confederation of Labor) National Youth Commission the task of propaganda and mobilization of youth for the Third World Festival of Youth for Peace, which will be held in Berlin from 5 to 9 August 1951. The Cominform attaches considerable importance to this Festival from a propaganda point of view.
2. The National Youth Commission of the CGIL is getting ready to conduct this campaign on a large scale. It has already sent out detailed instructions to its subordinate commissions on the procedures to be followed in the preparations for the Festival.
3. According to these instructions, the work for the Festival was to begin immediately in conjunction with the preparations for the National Congress for Youth which was held in Florence on 15, 16 and 17 June 1951. In the Provincial and Communal conferences, as well as those in the various categories and business concerns which will be held in preparation for the national conference, "there will be much discussion" of the Berlin Festival and its importance.
4. All assemblies, meetings and political activities organized by the PCI will be utilized to popularize the Berlin Festival. The Communists will send some of their most popular young men and women, namely those who have most distinguished themselves in the campaign for peace and liberty. All young men and women, however, have the right to participate in the Festival, whatever their political views and religion, provided they are "serious-minded and honest". In fact, to enlarge the participation of the latter group of a greater extent, invitations will be sent to all types of political, cultural, workers' and sporting organizations, urging them to send their representatives.
5. Substantially, every Province is to send its own delegation to the Berlin Festival and will include in this body members of the Provincial Peace Committees, syndicates, leagues, Chambers of Labor, cooperatives, CRAL groups, as well as all other individuals who ask to join and guarantee to make payment of the quota, which will be in the neighborhood of 25,000 lire.

6. With regard to the collection of funds for the Festival, the National Youth Commission has announced that subscriptions, lotteries, money-boxes, parties and miscellaneous entertainments will be organized for this purpose.
7. On 31 April 1951, a particularly important circular was sent out by the National Youth Commission to its subordinate Youth Commissions and to the offices of the secretaries of the Chambers of Labor and the Federations of the national syndicates. This circular directs that each participant in the Festival must obtain an individual passport and should start the necessary procedure immediately. The requests for passports must be based on reasons of travel and study.
8. An Italian Committee for the Youth Festival has been assigned the task of making the necessary arrangements for the trip to Berlin. It is located at 19 Via Boncompagni, Rome, and its president is Umberto Terracini. The latter has already sent out circulars to the Internal Commissions of the various firms and cooperatives, directing them to make commitments to send their delegates to Berlin and support Italian participation in the Festival by collecting funds and staging demonstrations.
